

10th December 2021

Dear Parents and Guardians,

We have had another great week in school, with lots of super learning and Christmas fun.

We have been practising really hard with the Christmas play and look forward to sharing the video with you next week.

Attendance next week is really important as we don't want the children to miss out on all of the exciting activities planned for the last 4 days of term.

Wishing you all a great weekend.

CET Headteacher

To celebrate the children's hard work and effort, we would like the children to come into school in their party clothes on the last day of term.
